Labor Commissioner Appoints Chris Hill as the New Utah OSHA Director

SALT LAKE CITY – Commissioner Sherrie Hayashi recently announced the appointment of Mr. Chris Hill as the new Utah OSHA Director. Mr. Hill received his undergraduate degree from Utah State University and his Juris Doctor from the S.J. Quinney College of Law at the University of Utah. He is also a member of the Utah State Bar.

Prior to his appointment, Chris worked as Assistant General Counsel for Federated Capital Corporation and managed the regional collection office located in Salt Lake City.

During his career Mr. Hill also worked as an associate attorney for the law firms of Bostwick & Price, P.C., and Scalley Reading Bates Hansen & Rasmussen, P.C., where his practice focused primarily on construction litigation, workplace health and safety issues, commercial litigation, and property matters. Mr. Hill also worked as Associate General Counsel for a real estate investment company located in Boise, Idaho.

"I am excited for the opportunity to work with the outstanding members of the Utah OSHA Division and to contribute to its efforts in serving the citizens of the State of Utah" Mr. Hill said. "My goal is to help the Division work with employers to achieve compliance with all applicable standards and provide assistance with safety and health in the workplace to keep the citizens of Utah safe and healthy while at work" he added.
